ASHES FOR FRUIT TREES .- The editor of the Horticulturist says: "We have known quite a number of instances-indeed, so often as to CAR A. STEVENS. make it quite a rule-that old crehards appar - Richard T. Merrick. ently dying out have been brought back again George Wm. Brent, to fruitfulness, by the liberal use of wood ashes-also, stirring the soil. Potash is the most important element in the successful growth of all kinds of fruit trees. An old gentleman told a club, not long ago, that he had known man to make and preserve an orchard of approved in a flourishing and productive condition, of 2 inally placed on very poor ground, by sprinkling every year around each tree, to the circumference of the extent of its branches, half a bushel of ashes. We consider this a very important item.' A WARNING .- A recently married Trenton girl, now residing in New York, met with quite a painful accident a few days since through trying to "keep up with the fashions." She had provided herself with a pair of "Grecian bend shoes," and had them on in the street for the first time, when she was thrown forward with such violence as to cause her to turn a complete somersault, and breaking her ankle. She is confined to her bed, and will be for some time to come .- Trenton Gazette.

THE SUNDAY HERALD PUBLISHED EVERY SUNDAY MORN-ING, at No. 935 D street, N. W., Wash-ington, D. C., contains all the News of the Capital, Social, Personal and Political, with a great variety of Interesting Original and Se-lected Literay Matter. It is just entering upon its fifth year, and is beyond a doubt the most popular of all the Sunday or weekly new spa-ners published in Washington. It has a larger pers published in Washington. It has a larger circulation and reaches a better class of citizens than either of its cotemporaries. Its popularity is increasing with each issue, and it is the intention of its present proprietors to constantly and to the attractions of its columns.

The Hebald is the only independent journal issued in Washington. It has no favors to ask and no friends to reward. Its only object is to make a live newspaper; one that will be alike interesting in the department, in the counting room and in the home circle.

It will always be its first duty to advocate the interests and reflect the sentiments of the permanent residents and property-holders of Washington and the adjacent country. Look for the exciting story "Wyprows's Will," from for the exciting story "Wybrows's Will," from London Society; "Gossip about the Capital," "Washington Society," "The Reunion of the Army of the Potomac," and other great features in next Sunday's issue.
